

The Cleaf presented by Egger collection highlights the innovative aesthetic and tactile research on surfaces. It recalls the Made in Italy ability to interpret the needs of contemporary furniture and the most inspiring environments, thanks to the continuous exchange of ideas with architects and industrial designers.

A complete and coordinated collection – 27 products, developed in 10 textures, available as faced panel, laminate and ABS edge – which allows the creation of multiple stylistic combinations for different contexts.

